CASABLANCA'S LATEST "PLAN" IS VAGUE AND REDUNDANT WITH CLIFFS' CURRENT STRATEGY

SETTLEMENT DISCUSSIONS – MARCH THROUGH APRIL 2014

- Cliffs offered Casablanca to appoint one independent director to Cliffs' Board
- Casablanca rejected this offer and requested that Cliffs postpone the record date
- Cliffs offered Casablanca to appoint two independent directors to Cliffs' Board, with a third mutually acceptable director to be named at a later date
- Casablanca rejected this offer
- Casablanca nominated six directors for election to Cliffs' Board
- Cliffs accommodated by postponing the record date by approximately three months
- Cliffs and Casablanca discussed reducing the Board to nine members and allowing Casablanca to appoint three independent directors including Mr. Goncalves
- Casablanca proposed that Cliffs reduce the Board to nine members and appoint three Casablanca nominees, with Mr. Goncalves serving as executive chairman and chairman of Cliffs' Strategy Committee

Cliffs' Board considered this proposal and during March and April, nine of Cliffs' Board members interviewed Mr. Goncalves regarding his strategic vision for Cliffs. Based on those interviews, Cliffs' Board determined that it was not in the best interest of Cliffs' shareholders to appoint Mr. Goncalves to executive chairman or chairman of Cliffs' Strategy Committee

- Cliffs rejected the proposal and informed Casablanca that it was unwilling to appoint Mr. Goncalves to executive chairman or chairman of the Cliffs' Strategy Committee, but if Casablanca reconfigures the proposed settlement without executive or chairmanship roles, Cliffs would review and consider

 James F. Cliffs
 Executive Chairman
 Cliffs Natural Resources Inc.

Dear Jim,

Funds managed by Casablanca Capital Natural Resources Inc., including:

Over the past few weeks, we have seen these and other announcements with respect to the structure of the company. Changing our direction, we would not have been able to significantly understand and accommodate any management risks to a future shareholder value. You have indicated that you are not interested in the Board.

First and foremost, we urge you to spin off Bloom Lake, together with Asia Pacific, to create "Cliffs International". Cliffs' operations from Bloom Lake are the most valuable and profitable. The spin-off of Bloom Lake and Asia Pacific is a natural fit for Cliffs' long-term strategy. In addition, the "Cliffs USA" assets are worth hundreds of millions of dollars and should be sold to the public. In addition, we urge the Board to take the following actions:

- Double the dividend which would be paid to Cliffs USA shareholders
- Convert the U.S. assets to a Simple Limited Partnership ("SLP")
- Repurchase the outstanding common equity
- Optimize cash costs and operating profitability
- Create additional debt and common equity
- Set clear objectives for the return on capital
- Hire stronger and financial advisors to assist in evaluating the shareholder value and work in an independent manner

Casablanca believes that implementing these actions will significantly increase the value of Cliffs USA and work in an independent manner—over 2.5x Cliffs' current market value.

I trust you will find this letter helpful and please let me know if you have any questions.

Dear Mr. Cliffs,

Thank you for your letter of January 27, 2014, regarding the proposed spin-off of Bloom Lake and Asia Pacific to create "Cliffs International". We appreciate your interest in the company and your suggestions for the Board. However, we are unable to implement the actions you have suggested at this time.

Regarding the proposed spin-off of Bloom Lake and Asia Pacific, we have reviewed your proposal and believe that it is not in the best interests of the company. The proposed spin-off would result in the loss of valuable assets and would create significant operational challenges. We believe that the current structure of the company is the most effective way to manage our operations and maximize shareholder value.

The proposed conversion would result in the loss of valuable assets and would create significant operational challenges. We believe that the current structure of the company is the most effective way to manage our operations and maximize shareholder value.

Regarding the proposed repurchase of common equity, we have reviewed your proposal and believe that it is not in the best interests of the company. The proposed repurchase would result in the loss of valuable assets and would create significant operational challenges. We believe that the current structure of the company is the most effective way to manage our operations and maximize shareholder value.

Regarding the proposed optimization of cash costs and operating profitability, we have reviewed your proposal and believe that it is not in the best interests of the company. The proposed optimization would result in the loss of valuable assets and would create significant operational challenges. We believe that the current structure of the company is the most effective way to manage our operations and maximize shareholder value.

Regarding the proposed creation of additional debt and common equity, we have reviewed your proposal and believe that it is not in the best interests of the company. The proposed creation would result in the loss of valuable assets and would create significant operational challenges. We believe that the current structure of the company is the most effective way to manage our operations and maximize shareholder value.

Regarding the proposed setting of clear objectives for the return on capital, we have reviewed your proposal and believe that it is not in the best interests of the company. The proposed setting would result in the loss of valuable assets and would create significant operational challenges. We believe that the current structure of the company is the most effective way to manage our operations and maximize shareholder value.

Regarding the proposed hiring of stronger and financial advisors, we have reviewed your proposal and believe that it is not in the best interests of the company. The proposed hiring would result in the loss of valuable assets and would create significant operational challenges. We believe that the current structure of the company is the most effective way to manage our operations and maximize shareholder value.

Thank you for your letter and for your interest in the company. We will continue to work with you on the proposed spin-off of Bloom Lake and Asia Pacific to create "Cliffs International".

CASABLANCA'S SUGGESTION THAT CLIFFS IS HOARDING CASH DEMONSTRATES ITS LACK OF UNDERSTANDING OF THE MINING & STEEL INDUSTRIES

Overview of Cliffs' Financial Policy

- Focused on long-term value creation through the cycle
- Improving free cash flow generation is top priority
- Lowering net debt and sustaining a strong liquidity position with cash flow from operations given the volatile nature of the iron ore and coal markets
- Investment grade profile provides strategic flexibility through the cycle
- Regularly evaluate return of capital policy in light of funding operations, selectively investing in growth initiatives and servicing existing debt

WE BELIEVE THAT CASABLANCA'S NOMINEES ARE UNQUALIFIED TO LEAD AND GAIN A MAJORITY OF CLIFFS' BOARD...

Casablanca's Only Nominee with Recent Mining Industry Experience Abandons Casablanca 34 Days before Annual Meeting

Nominees	Limitations of experience
Lourenco Goncalves	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✗ Metals industry experience focused on processing and distribution – businesses with low fixed cost structures, limited commodity price exposure and low capital intensity ✗ No recent experience leading global mining operations
Robert Fisher	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✗ Experience primarily in investment banking, private investing and non-profit leadership roles ✗ Limited exposure to mining sector since 2001 – missing recent "super cycle" and emerging markets dynamics

CASABLANCA'S CLAIMS ABOUT CLIFFS' GOVERNANCE PRACTICES ARE MISLEADING

Casablanca's Stale and Misleading Accusations

Cliffs' Actual 2014 ISS QuickScore Profile

CASABLANCA CONSISTENTLY CHERRY-PICKS DATA TO SUPPORT ITS MISLEADING CLAIMS

CASABLANCA IS AIMING FOR DISPROPORTIONATE REPRESENTATION ON THE BOARD BY TAKING ADVANTAGE OF CUMULATIVE VOTING

- Cumulative voting allows shareholders to aggregate their votes towards one or more nominees
 - Shares held x (number of board seats available) = Total votes
 - A holder may allocate all of their total votes towards one candidate, or distribute them between multiple candidates
 - A holder who gives their proxy to another party allows that party to determine how its votes are allocated
 - Cumulative voting can be used by a holder to gain board representation despite small ownership stake
 - Percentage ownership required to elect 1 nominee = Quorum/(number of directors + 1)
- Assuming 2014 Quorum will be 60.2%¹ of outstanding shares, Casablanca will be able to elect one director by only using their own shares
 - Owning 5.2% of outstanding shares
 - Representing 9.1% of the board seats
- Based on discussions with various shareholders, at this time Cliffs' Board has only nominated nine candidates for the eleven seats up for election
- Additional support of Casablanca's dissident slate is likely to result in even greater disproportionate representation on Cliffs' board
- Voting on the WHITE Cliffs proxy card FOR ALL nominees will help to control the disproportionate influence of a 5.2% minority shareholder which has only owned Cliffs' shares since November 2013

CASABLANCA IS TRYING TO USE CUMULATIVE VOTING TO GAIN A MAJORITY OF CLIFFS' BOARD DESPITE HAVING ONLY A 5.2% STAKE

CLIFFS URGES SHAREHOLDERS TO REJECT THE EFFORTS BY CASABLANCA TO LEVERAGE ITS MINORITY STAKE TO GAIN A MAJORITY OF CLIFFS' BOARD

- Cliffs has taken extensive actions to reconstitute its Board of Directors and recruit a new leadership team to reset Cliffs' strategic direction
- We believe our Board and CEO have the right large-scale global mining experience to lead Cliffs through volatile iron ore and coal markets and create value for all shareholders over the long-term
- We have sharpened our strategic focus by meaningfully simplifying our organization, improving operating efficiencies, cutting costs, and halting capital spending on development projects
- We are focused on our strong U.S. and Asia Pacific businesses and are exploring strategic alternatives for Eastern Canadian Iron Ore
- Casablanca has offered shifting proposals for Cliffs that, in our opinion, fail to provide a path to sustainable shareholder value creation
- We believe Casablanca's CEO and certain director nominees lack the right large-scale mining experience required to lead Cliffs

VOTE FOR CLIFFS' DIRECTOR NOMINEES AT 2014 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS ON JULY 29, 2014

CLIFFS HAS FIRMLY ESTABLISHED A NEW STRATEGIC DIRECTION

- Beginning in July 2013, Cliffs' Board of Directors took decisive actions including changing management and strengthening the Board

- Cliffs' Board of Directors installed a new management team to drive action and accountability for results

- New CEO and leadership team have reset strategic course and improved operating and financial discipline

- Efficient and return-driven capital allocation mindset is guiding all strategic decisions

- The focus of Cliffs' Board of Directors and management is to drive long-term shareholder value
