Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 29, 2005, Cleveland-Cliffs Inc (the "Company") entered into an Employment Agreement (the "Employment Agreement") with Joseph A. Carrabba, the newly appointed President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company. A brief description of the material terms and conditions of the Employment Agreement is contained in Item 5.02 of this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated into this Item 1.01 by reference.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On May 3, 2005, Cleveland-Cliffs Inc (the "Company") announced in a press release (attached as Exhibit 99a) that Mr. Joseph A. Carrabba, 52, had accepted the position of President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company. With the appointment of Mr. Carrabba as President and Chief Operating Officer, the current title for John S. Brinzo, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, will become Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Carrabba accepted the Company's offer on April 29, 2005. Mr. Carrabba will begin his employment in late May.

Mr. Carrabba has had a mining career spanning over 30 years, of which has been spent in open pit mining operations and general management roles. Mr. Carrabba has been employed by the Rio Tinto Group of Melbourne, Australia since 1983. Mr. Carrabba was General Manager of Weipa Bauxite Operation Comalco Aluminum in North Queensland, Australia from 2000 to 2003, an 11 million ton aluminum mining operation, where he was heavily involved with process improvement. Since 2003, Mr. Carrabba was President and Chief Operating Officer of Diavik Diamond Mines, Inc. in Yellowknife, Northwest Territory, Canada, a subsidiary of Rio Tinto. Diavik Diamond Mines was newly commissioned in 2003 as a project with a start-up cost of approximately C$1.3 billion.

Mr. Carrabba has no previous affiliation with the Company or any of its subsidiaries. He has no familial or business relationships with any of the current officers or Directors of the Company.

Under the terms of the Employment Agreement Mr. Carrabba will receive the following:

An annual base salary of $450,000;

A signing bonus of $250,000;

Mr. Carrabba will be eligible to participate in the Company's Management Performance Incentive Plan with no proration of bonus for 2005. The target cash bonus for 2005 is $225,000 with a minimum payout of 100 percent of target in 2006;

Mr. Carrabba will receive a grant of 3,800 shares of restricted stock, with one-third of the grant vesting on each subsequent anniversary of the date of grant for three years;

Mr. Carrabba will be eligible to participate in the Company's Long-Term Equity Incentive Plan beginning January 1, 2005 through December 31, 2007 and will receive an award of 3,230 Performance Shares and 570 Retention Units under such plan; and

Mr. Carrabba will be eligible to participate in the Company's Supplemental Employee Retirement Plan and will be given an initial credit of $1,000,000 to his cash balance account as of his first day of employment with the Company.

The Company will also enter into a Change of Control severance agreement with Mr. Carrabba providing for a severance payment of three years compensation (base salary plus target bonus) in the event his position is eliminated or substantially diminished following a change of control.

NEWS RELEASE

Mining Industry Veteran Joseph A. Carrabba
Joins Cleveland-Cliffs as President and Chief Operating Officer

Cleveland, OH—May 3, 2005—Cleveland-Cliffs Inc (NYSE: CLF) today announced that Joseph A. Carrabba has accepted the position of president and chief operating officer of the Company. Upon assuming his new role, Carrabba will be responsible for all operations of Cleveland-Cliffs, and for all operational support functions such as technical services and supply-chain management.

Mr. Carrabba, 52, joins Cleveland-Cliffs from Rio Tinto, a global mining company, where he served for 22 years in a variety of leadership capacities at locations around the globe. He was most recently president and chief operating officer of Rio Tinto's Diavik Diamond Mines, Inc., in Canada's Northwest Territory.

Cleveland-Cliffs' Chairman and Chief Executive Officer John Brinzo said: "We feel extremely fortunate to have attracted a leader of Mr. Carrabba's caliber, and enthusiastically welcome him to the Cleveland-Cliffs team. Joe's vast experience in mining and mineral processing at locations world-wide, including Australia and Asia, aligns perfectly with our long-term strategic objective to extend our presence in the fastest growing iron ore markets in the world."

"Beyond his obvious operating experience," Brinzo continued, "Joe brings to Cliffs a wealth of knowledge regarding the commercial and distribution facets of the mining business. We look forward to his invaluable contributions as we pursue our goal of becoming a larger, international mining company."

Carrabba said, "I am most pleased to become a part of the Cleveland-Cliffs management team, particularly as the Company moves into the next exciting chapter of its evolution".

Carrabba, a native of Ohio, earned his Bachelor's Degree in Geology from Capital University and his MBA from Frostberg State University in Maryland.
